RESPONSE TO TALENT
SHORTAGE

EQUALITY OF INTELLIGENCE

SOCIAL MOBILITY AND DIVERSITY

PEER MODEL OF LEARNING

- Disruptor & Billionaire: A top 10 wealthiest person in France
- Major seed investor in Mistral AI and founder of Station F
- Titan in Telco, Tech, and Real Estate

"In an innovative economy where technologies are evolving at a rapid pace, faster than curricula, rather than trying to transmit knowledge:
WE HAVE TO LEARN HOW TO LEARN AND HOW TO UNLEARN."

OUR COMMITMENT

42 Prague systematically addresses the talent shortage and the skills mismatch on labour market by bridging the gap between industry demand and talent supply.

Using a 13-year proven global peer-learning model, we build a pipeline of highly adaptable professionals. Our talent stands out through their continuous preparedness for technological shifts and the ongoing transformation of future job roles.

PROVEN METHODOLOGY

PEER-TO-PEER LEARNING

Students learn from each other. No teachers. High responsibility and ownership

PROJECT-BASED LEARNING

They build knowledge through simulated real projects and challenges.

GAMIFICATION

Natural motivation, progress and continuous feedback.

This methodology originated in France and has been proven through more than 13 years of international practice within the 42 Network. The program is conducted fully in English to mirror global industry standards.

OUTCOME

42 Prague develops people with the combination of technical and human skills companies need today and in five years.

WE EVOLVE BEYOND:

- Long and rigid study programmes
 - Tuition fees and financial barriers to education
 - Teacher-centric, passive lectures
 - Learning without real-world practice

WITH

- Strong and durable tech fundamentals
- Connection with industry and hands-on problem solving
- Responsibility and self-direction
- A mindset built for constant change
